

TRIBES & FIRST NATIONS CLIMATE SUMMIT

Preliminary Agenda v. 10-12-17

DRAFT

LOCATION

December 13 to 14, 2017

Tulalip Resort Casino, Tulalip WA

DECEMBER 13: Traditional Knowledges, Cultural & Subsistence Resources

WELCOME

8:30 – 9:15

WELCOME & ORIENTATION

Don Sampson

OPENING BLESSING

Tulalip

Plenary Speaker

Brian Cladoosby

TRADITIONAL KNOWLEDGES

Understand how traditional knowledge is shaping conservation and adaptation studies to ensure appropriate engagement protocols are upheld and knowledges are protected. Review a range of methodological approaches and discuss learnings, outcomes and gaps by reviewing case studies

9:30 – 11:00

Traditional Knowledge

PLENARY PRESENTATIONS (5 to 6 speakers including Q&A)

Panel Discussion among presenters (15 minutes)

11:00 – 12:00

Breakout: small-group discussions with facilitator and note-taker
Report back to large group

12:00 – 1:30

LUNCH

CULTURAL AND SUBSISTENCE RESOURCES

Review of subsistence resource studies completed, learn what changes people are observing, discuss implications with human well-being and review new tools for documenting change.

1:30 – 3:00

Cultural and Subsistence Resources

PLENARY PRESENTATIONS (5 to 6 speakers including Q&A)

Panel Discussion among presenters (15 minutes)

3:00 – 3:15

Break

3:15– 4:15

Breakout Small-group Discussions with facilitator and note-taker
Report back to large group

4:15 – 5:00

Poster Session / Organization Booths

6:00 – 8:00

Evening Reception or Dinner

TRIBES & FIRST NATIONS CLIMATE SUMMIT

Preliminary Agenda v. 10-12-17

DRAFT

DECEMBER 14, 2017 – Becoming Resilient, Policy and Closing

8:30 – 9:15 OPENING REMARKS

Don Sampson

Plenary Speaker

Fawn Sharp

PLANS AND ACTIONS TO SUPPORT RESILIENCY

Review vulnerability assessments and climate adaptation planning in tribal and first nations communities and identify strategies for implementing adaptation measures and to provide a review of current tools and resources for adaptation planning.

9:30 – 11:00 Becoming Resilient - PLENARY PRESENTATIONS

PLENARY PRESENTATIONS (5 to 6 speakers including Q&A)

Panel Discussion among presenters (15 minutes)

11:00 – 12:00 Breakout Small-group Discussions with facilitator and note-taker

Report back to large group

12:00 – 1:30 LUNCH

Lunch Speaker?

POLICY

Develop strategies to navigate within the current political environment; identify opportunities to sustain climate change study; build capacity and strengthen regional networks to facilitate policy objectives; and move towards project implementation on the path to resiliency.

1:30 – 3:00 Policy - PLENARY PRESENTATIONS

PLENARY PRESENTATIONS (5 to 6 speakers including Q&A)

Panel Discussion among presenters (15 minutes)

2:45 -3:00 Break

3:00 – 4:00 Breakout Small-group Discussions with facilitator and note-taker

Report back to large group

4:00 – 4:45 Closing Session

Closing statements developed from the Summit