

ATNI Energy & Telecommunications Committee Report
2014 Spring Conference Great Wolf Lodge
May 5-8, 2014
Andrea Alexander & Randell Harris, CO-Chairs

Monday, May 5, 2014 Telecommunications Committee 1:30pm to 3:30pm

1. Lifeline cell phone service: Communications services for low income Native Americans, how to apply and access, Dan Youmans, Regional Vice President, AT & T External Affairs
2. Update on the WA State Tribal Technology Planning Grant – Scott Stevens, Keenwire & Randall Harris, ATNI
3. Brian Howard, Legislative Associate, NCAI – Telecommunications Policy Updates
4. Carl Rebstock, State of Washington Information Officer, FirstNet – Broadband data network for first responders. What did we learn from the Oso mudslide?
5. Tribal Technology Training Program –Discussion on the partnership to bring technology training to native communities, Andrea Alexander and Randall Harris, Co-Chairs ATNI Energy & Technology Committee

Tuesday, May 6, 2014 Energy Committee 1:30pm to 3:30pm

1. David Conrad, (Osage) Director for Tribal Intergovernmental Affairs, Office of Congressional & Intergovernmental Affairs, U.S Department of Energy
2. Sarai Geary (Muscogee Creek) Program Manger, Office of Indian Energy Policy and Programs & Direlle Calica, (Warm Springs), ATNI Energy Program, Overview of Proposed Tribal Energy Training, July 2014
3. Corrina Ikakoula, (Navajo), BPA Tribal Affairs Manager, Agency Update
4. Joanna Grist, Executive Director, Washington Wildlife and Recreation Program: Learn how to access funds collected from oil and gas leases that fund local projects www.wildliferecreation.org
5. Valerie Segrest, (Muckleshoot) Native Food & Food Security Updates and opposition to genetically modified salmon
6. Makah Tribal Access to Broadband Services, Tribal Case Study on rural access to high speed internet, Crystal Hottowe, Planning, Michelle Parkin, School Liaison & TJ Greene, Makah, Tribal Chairman
7. Geoffrey Blackwell, (Chickasaw), Chief, Office of Native Affairs and Programs, Federal Communications Commission, Policy Update
8. Resolutions & Adjourn